As an individual I am responsible for the carrying out of these rules and if I break them or see another do so, I will immediately report to a member of the Student Council (preferably the president). I also agree to carry the honor system into the class room, where I will neither give nor receive aid; if I violate or see another violate this class room pledge I will be under obligation to report at once to the president of the Student Government Association.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

We, the students of Queens College, in order to promote our well-being as students and fulfill the purpose for which we came to college, do hereby, in agreement with the Faculty, adopt the following Constitution:

Article I

The name of this association shall be the Student Government Association of Queens College.

Article II

The purpose of the association shall be the government of the Student Body.

Article III

All persons pursuing studies at Queens College hereby adopt the honor system as the basis of its policy. This means in its application to the conduct of its members that each girl is to be trusted to observe all the regulations of Student Government, including those of the college, and to report herself to the Student Council if she violates any of them. This is loyalty to Student Government, and no girl is worthy to continue as a member who is shown to be guilty of disloyalty.

Article IV

(a) The officers of the association shall be a President elected from the Senior Class, one Vice-President for each building of residence, also from the Senior Class, a Secretary from the Junior Class, a Treasurer from the Sophomore Class, and a Day Student President from the Senior Class also.

(b) The above officers with two additional members from the Senior Class, two from the Junior, one from the Sophomore, one from the Freshman, and the Day Student President shall constitute the Student Council.

(c) The senior members of the outgoing Student Council shall nominate candidates for President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and shall submit this to the advisory board and then give the names (if approved) to the Student Body to be voted upon. This election shall take place the first week in April and installation of officers will take place the last week in April.

A plurality of vote shall elect all officers for the association. The officers of the association, with the exception of the Day Student President, come from the boarding students.

(d) A Proctor shall be chosen by the students from each floor of the dormitories at the beginning of the Fall term; two names being selected by the Student Council. Their term of office shall be six weeks.

(e) These Proctors shall be subject to removal by Student Council if inefficient in performance of their duties.

Article V

(a) The duties of the President shall be to call and preside over all meetings of association.

(b) The duties of the Vice-President shall be to preside over and keep order in her hall and to meet with the Student Council.

(c) The duties of the Secretary shall be to keep minutes of the association, a list of its members, post notices of its meetings, and attend to the correspondence of the association.

(d) The duties of the Treasurer shall be to collect all fines, dues of the association, and to expend same in accordance with the will of the association.

(e) The duties of the Student Council shall be to apply the will of the association as expressed in the Constitution, and by enforcing the By-Laws hereinafter stated. No decision of the Student Council can be modified unless it has been disapproved by two-thirds of those present.

(f) Every member of the Student Body shall act as an indoor and outdoor Proctor. All proceedings of the Council shall be submitted to the Dean for her perusal.

(g) Every member of the Student Body, if she violates the regulation, should report herself to the Student Council; if she fails to do so in 24 hours, after committing the offense, and any member of the Student Body is cognizant of her doing so, it shall be the duty of such member to call her attention to this omission and to notify her that upon a continuance of this attitude of another 24 hours, she herself will be compelled to make the report.

Article VI

A meeting of the association should be held regularly once a month, at which Student Government problems shall be discussed; besides these meetings the President may call meetings on her own motion.

We are glad to have you share in our fellowship, in order that together we may find new opportunities for profit and pleasure, and so to unite in sincere love and loyalty to our college.

We want you to unite with us in service and love for Him and others.

To you who are new girls in our college, we extend a most sincere and hearty welcome. We want you to feel at home, in the church and in the Q. S. C. A. It is one college organization to which every girl is eligible for membership.

We want 100 per cent active membership this year. Won't you help us to attain that end? You will find your place in the Q. S. C. A. work as soon as you become a member. There is enough pleasant and profitable work to keep every girl busy.

The Q. S. C. A. is a local organization formed here last year to take the place of the Y. W. C. A. We believed that we could enter more whole-heartedly into the work of a Christian Association organized and carried on within our own college. Not being closely affiliated with the National Y. W. C. A., and finding that we were unable to subscribe to all of its views, the student body voted to withdraw and form a local organization. Our common purpose is to live a life in accord with Christ's teachings, using as our guide His Holy Word, and to trust in Him alone for salvation.

The work is carried on by the students assisted at times by the town pastors. There is work that each girl may do and we hope the students will take an active part in every phase of it.

As college girls we have come to realize that there is a place for us in the community and that there is a place for us to serve now as well as later. We co-operate with the local Orphanages and Charity Associations in finding opportunities to serve.

Through the Mission Chairman, and the Christian Service Band, who work together, we get in touch with Christianity in other lands, and study the foreign and home fields that are in need of workers. This is not a Student Volunteer Group but is connected with the volunteer movement.

In this day of changing standards there is a tendency on the part of the students to get away from Christian ideals and the Church. Since we feel that this is true, we hope through the Church project to show the dependence of the student upon the Church, and also to help her find her place there. Each girl is urged to take an active part in the regular worship services; that is, Vesper service, good-night prayer meeting.

The center of the Q. S. C. A. on Queens campus is the Hut. We want you to share with us in making it have a cheery and homelike atmosphere.

Q. S. C. A. HUT REGULATIONS

I. Sunday—Open from 4:30-9:00 p. m.
Monday—Open all day.
Other days—Open from 3:30-9:30 (dinner and study hall hours excepted).

II. Special parties to be signed up for at least a day ahead of time. (On these special occasions no one else is allowed the use of the Hut).

III. When no special party is in progress, anyone can have use of kitchen who gets there first.

IV. Kitchen must be kept immaculate and everything in perfect order.

V. Monitors for looking after conditions of Hut will be appointed every two weeks by the Chairman of the Social Committee.

VI. Take care of equipment as if your own personal property, and see to it that everything stays in its place. The fires will be built by the college management.

VII. Reading material cannot be removed from Hut.

VIII. No dishes to be removed from Hut.

Hostess: Mary G. Query.

MONTREAT AND DAVIDSON CONFERENCES

Something of which all new college students hear much in the coming year is the Montreat and Davidson College Conferences, which are held annually. Here students from all over the State meet to discuss the various problems which they are meeting in their organization and to aid one another in the settlement of these problems. Here in the beautiful mountains they enjoy together the long summer days, of happy companionship, bugle calls, work and play, long hikes and wholesome fun-making.

However, this is only the smallest part of these Conferences. Here one meets the leaders in Christian thought from all points of the State, and representatives from several of our Southern colleges, all of whom are striving to find the real things in life. One unites with them in earnest, open-minded study and simple, pure worship of the Father.

The joys and inspirations of such a conference forms one of the happiest memories of many an old Queens girl.

Any girl in school may attend these conferences. Plan now to be a Queens representative next year. See the Q. S. C. A. for further information.

The Point System

No student can hold offices amounting to more than 20 points at one time. (Any student holding more than this amount is subject to correction by authorities on the campus).

They remain on this side all through college. This is to promote active interest and co-operation, each girl having a part to play. A Queens banner is awarded to the side making the highest number of points. When the banner has been won three consecutive years it becomes the permanent property of that side, after they have been divided. The cap-

Marshals

The Junior making the highest scholastic average for three years shall be chief marshal; the two Juniors making next highest, the two Sophomores who average highest for two years and the Freshman averaging highest for one year shall serve as commencement marshals.

They shall usher for class day exercises and for graduation exercises. They shall wear the colors of the graduating class.

Marshals will serve throughout the following year.

TRADITIONS

The Freshman and Junior classes are sister classes, while the Sophomores and Seniors stand united at all times in events demanding class spirit. Generally, some social courtesies are rendered to upper-class girls by lower-classmen.

Queens College colors are light blue and dark blue, and our motto, "Nisi dominus est frustra." The entering class always takes the colors, motto and flower of the class which was graduated the previous June.

On Class Day, during commencement week, the Juniors carry a daisy chain and receive the caps and gowns which are the exclusive property of the Senior Class. After receiving these the Junior Class enjoys its annual dinner in the city.

Everyone stands during the singing of "Alma Mater."

The Edelweiss is published by the Senior Class, while the Queens Blues is published by the Junior Class.

Seniors wear their caps and gowns and act as ushers on May Day.

Juniors serve at the Alumnae Banquet.

"O Mother Dear, Jerusalem," and "Ancient of Days," are always sung as the Processional and Recessional at the Baccalaureate Sermon.

The Seniors give the Sophomores a breakfast Class Day.

The Senior Class, upon leaving, always leaves some gift to the College.

The Sophomores decorate the stage for Class Day Exercises.

Tell your friends to address your mail in care of Queens College, Charlotte, North Carolina, or you may never receive it.

A fountain pen is almost indispensable to college students.

COLLEGE SONGS AND YELLS

We urge every new girl to learn these songs and yells as soon as possible so she may be able to enter into the "Queens Spirit" as soon as she arrives on the campus.

Alma Mater

I.

Deep within the waving forest,
Far from bustling town,
Stands our noble Alma Mater;
Proudly looks she down.

Chorus:

Sing her praises, lift her chorus
Over hill and dale!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Hail to Queens! All Hail!

II.

Deep among the fragrant pine trees
Is our college true,
There our noble Alma Mater
Proudly stands in view.

Hail, Queens, Hail!

Hail! Queens, Hail! Hail! Queens, Hail!
O college best of all the rest,
Thy praises never fail.

Our Mother and Our Queen

I.

Oh time of happiness and youth,
Of joyful consecration,
Of holy zeal for faith and truth,
And love-born inspiration
When earth is clad in vernal hue,
The skies in golden sheen—
We raise our hymn of joy to you,
Our Mother and our Queen.

II.

You lead from life's uncertain dawn
To glorious day your daughters,
In golden pictures you have drawn
The floods of living waters.
And round thy banner, blue and blue,
A faithful host is seen,
True to their honor, true to you,
Our Mother and our Queen.

III.

Though roseclad hope may open wide
The future's golden portal,
And love shall crown—a happy bride—

Our brows with wreaths immortal;
Though all our dreams are coming true,
Yet naught our hearts can wean,
Nor turn our grateful thoughts from you,
Our Mother and our Queen.

IV.

To grief and joy—as years go past—
Points fate's unerring finger;
But changeless shall, while life will last,
Your blessings with us linger,
Unfaltering love, like morning dew,
Shall keep your memory green—
Our lodestar bright, we gaze on you—
Our Mother and our Queen.

Sociability

All I want is sociability:
Some one to be sociable to me.
I'm so very sociable myself
I like sociable society.
I have a social temperament,
Sociable disposition, social sentiment:
I'm just as sociable as sociable can be,
And I've got to have more sociability.

Q. C. we love you,
Oh! Q. C. so dear,
If you think we don't love you,
What a foolish idea.

We are a band of college girls,
We strive with all our might
To work today, to clear the way
While Q. C.'s fame grows bright,
Her banners fling, her praises sing
Like pioneers we'll fight;
Our hearts are gay, we've come to say
Oh! Q. C. is all right.

Chorus:
Q. C., Q. C., Rah rah, Rah rah, Rah rah,
Q. C., Q. C., College girls we are!
Alack, alack, boom, boom!
Rah, rah, rah, Q. C.!

Make way and hail, here comes the Q. C. girls,
Pouring their dauntless spirit forth in song,
Wake up girls and answer the call,
Queens girls will lead them all.

We've got the grit that's gonna pull us through,
And all the pep that we will show to you,
We'll go forth and face the world today,
Queens girls, Queens girls, Queens girls.

Q. C., Q. C., you're a wonder,
And when you are old and grey
We will all say yes by thunder,
You were some school in our day.

The finest girls I ever knew,
They never come a-poking,
If I should tell you the pep they have
You'd think I was a-joking.
It's not the pep of the pepper box,
Nor the pep of the pop-corn popper,
It's not the pep of the mustard can,
Nor the pep of the vinegar stopper.
It's the good old-fashioned P-E-P,
The pep you cannot down,
The Q. C. pep, the Q. C. pep,
The peppiest girls around.

O! Q. C. dear, we sing-a-ling-a-ling
With all our hearts to you,
We hope there'll be some thing-a-ling-a-ling
You'll call on us to do.
In autumn, winter, spring-a-ling-a-ling
And all the whole year through
We'll sing-a-ling-a-ling, praise bring
A-ling-a-ling, cheers ring-a-ling-a-ling for you.

I'd like to be a Mitchell girl,
  Uh-huh and a little more.
I'd like to be a Salem girl,
  Uh-huh and a little more.
But now that I'm a Q. C. girl
  Then I want no more —
'Cause I've got all that's comin' to me,
  Uh-huh and a little more.
And a little bit, and a little bit more.

Q. C. Yell

Rah! Rah! Rah! Blue and Blue,
Q. C., Q. C., tried and true.
Nisi dominus est frustra—
Queens, Queens, Rah! Rah! Rah!

Hippety, Hoppety, Huss,
We're making a lot of fuss,
But nevertheless, you better guess
There's nothing the matter with us.
  1, 2, 3, 4—3, 2, 1, 4—
  Who are we for?
  Queens! Queens! Queens!

Sis, Boom, Bah!
Queens, Queens!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Razzle, dazzle, never frazzle,
  Not a thread but wool,
Altogether, altogether,
  That's the way we pull.
Queens girls, Queens girls, Queens girls.

COMMENCEMENT HYMNS

I.

O Mother dear, Jerusalem,
  When shall my sorrows have an end?
When shall I come to thee?
  The joys, when shall I see?

II.

O happy harbor of the saints!
O sweet and pleasant soil!
In thee no sorrow may be found,
No grief, no care, no toil.

III.

Thy walls are made of precious stones,
Thy bulwarks diamonds square;
Thy gates are of bright orient pearls,
Exceeding rich and rare.

IV.

Thy turrets and thy pinnacles
With carbuncles do shine;
Thy very streets are paved with gold,
Surpassing clear and fine.

V.

Thy gardens and thy gallant walks
Continually are green,
There grows such sweet and pleasant flowers
As nowhere else are seen.

VI.

Quiet through the streets, with silver sound
The flood of life doth flow;
Upon whose banks on every side
The wood of life doth grow.

VII.

There trees for evermore bear fruit,
And evermore do spring;
There evermore the angels sit,
And evermore do sing.

VIII.

Jerusalem, my happy home,
Would God I were in thee!
Would God my woes were at an end,
Thy joys that I might see!

I.

Ancient of Days, who sittest 'throned in glory;
To Thee all knees are bent, all voices pray;
Thy love has blessed the wide world's wondrous story,
With light and life since Eden's dawning day.

II.

O Holy Father, who hast led Thy children
In all the ages, with the fire and cloud,
Through seas dry-shod; through weary wastes bewildering;
To Thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.

III.

O Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Savior,
To Thee we owe the peace that still prevails,
Stilling the rude wills of men's wild behavior,
And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.

IV.

O Holy Ghost, the Lord and Life-giver,
Thine is the quickening power that gives increase.
From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
Our plenty, wealth, prosperity, and peace.

V.

O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring,
Praise we the goodness that doth crown our days;
Pray we, that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favor, kept to us always.
